

KEYS Region – Our Future by Design - 2004
CITIZEN SURVEY

Please select your three priority areas in column A, circle them and number them 1, 2, 3, review the draft vision statement in column B, and give us your comments in column C. (If you have time to comment on more than three topics, that's fine.) Tell us what you want to be sure is talked about in the 6 months ahead, and what you want reflected in KEYS action plans for the future. This is a quick snapshot, needed now to get us started – if you want to say more later, please see the end of the survey for ways to do that.

A. Aspects of community quality of life and well-being # 1-3 (and beyond)	B. Draft Vision Statements: We envision a community.....	C. Tell us what you want to be sure is talked about in the 6 months ahead, and what you want in KEYS action plans for the future. (Use the bottom or margins or additional pages if you need more space.)
1. Arts and culture –	...with abundant opportunities to re-create ourselves through culture and the arts.
2. Economy -	... that has a vibrant and diverse economy, with job opportunities and a livable income for all citizens.
3. Education –	...that is committed to successfully educating our children and supporting life long learning for all our citizens.
4. Environment -	... that respects the physical world that we inhabit, protects the natural environment and conserves resources.
5. Family –	... that provides a loving, safe, and healthy environment for children and families.
6. Health and human services – where all people have access to the prevention and treatment resources that they need to be emotionally and physically healthy.

7. Housing - that maintains an adequate variety of housing, so that all citizens can afford to live and work within our towns.
8. Municipal and county services - that provides basic municipal and county services at an affordable cost.
9. Senior citizens - that values, respects, and supports seniors and those that care about them, by offering easy to find and use resources to meet their needs.
10. Service and volunteerism - where service and volunteerism are rewarding parts of everyone's life, from children to seniors.
11. Transportation – with transportation options that enhance community involvement and personal and community well-being.
12. Youth – where all youth love where they live, feel safe and valued, are invited to speak and are listened to, and reach their full potential.
13. Other:
14. Other:

Continue here if needed, using the numbers you've assigned above:

This survey offers a chance to be heard in a regional context, for those who work and live in the KEYS towns. If you get it in a meeting – please turn it in before you leave! If you download it at www.keysregion.org please fax it to 207-439-8764 or mail it to: CWC, 15 Hospital Dr., York, Maine 03909, or attach it to an email to KEYSRegion@comcast.net Questions? Call the CWC at 207-438-9100